

K-love is my only radio station that I can receive in my area and many of us who live here look to K-love as a source of entertainment and spiritual guidance. If you take that away from us we will have nothing to replace it with. Many Christian and non-Christian listen to it as an alternative to TV and a source of emergency information